How does learning create peace in our city? How do we as women facilitate learning and engage as learners in our communities? How can the lives of Biblical women Ruth and Esther inspire our approaches to learning? Join us for our 7th Annual Symposium on Women in Leadership and Ministry as we collaboratively reflect and learn in response to this year's theme, Learn for the Peace of the City.

There will be opportunities for worship, study, refreshment, rest and reflection, and learning new things:
